

Kisolite announces Exclusive Agreement with Kisameet

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Chilliwack, BC, Canada – October 22, 2018 – Kisolite Corp. announces that it has executed an Assignment and Exclusive Supply Agreement with Kisameet Glacial Clay Inc.

Kisolite Corp. will immediately take over all responsibility for scientific research, product development, Licensing Agreements, marketing and sales.

“Completion of these Agreements is a significant step forward and will bring a new momentum to researching the potential uses of the mineral clay from Kisameet Bay. This Assignment brings new value to the business mission of commercializing Kisolite as an ingredient for sale. The focus will be on commercial research to specify new products, dosage and applications for both animal and human health” stated Lawry Lund, President of Kisolite Corp.

About Kisolite Corp

Breakthroughs in scientific research has confirmed evidence that the mineral clay, known as Kisolite, from Kisameet Bay, BC, Canada, demonstrates broad-spectrum antimicrobial activity and exhibits potent inhibitory activity against a variety of bacteria and other microbes.

Kisolite Corp owns the exclusive rights to Kisolite for Licensing Agreements, product development, formulations, sales and marketing.

Beginning in Q4 2018 Kisolite Corp. is commencing its commercialization efforts with a focus on functional foods as natural health products and cosmetics and is planning clinical trials for animal health.
